

Amazon Announces Prime Day 2018 – A Day (and a Half) of Epic Deals Starting July 16

03/07/2018

Prime Day 2018 will feature more than one million deals globally and 40 percent more Spotlight deals in the UK than in 2017

Amazon is unboxing even more for Prime members this year with surprise entertainment events in major cities around the world

New for this year, members can shop Prime Day Launches – exclusive new items, content and special-edition products from well-known and emerging brands

A record number of Prime members shopped across 13 countries during Prime Day last year – more than 5 million items were purchased on Prime

Day in the U.K. alone in 2017

London, 06:00, 3 July, 2018 – Amazon's highly-anticipated annual shopping event, Prime Day, will start on the 16th July at midday BST and will run until midnight on the 17th July. Bigger than ever, Prime Day (and a half) will extend from 30 hours in 2017 to 36 hours this year, with more than one million deals exclusively for Prime members around the world. Members in the U.K., U.S., Spain, Mexico, Japan, India, Italy, Germany, France, China, Canada, Belgium, Austria and, new this year, Australia, Singapore, Netherlands and Luxembourg, can shop deals across TVs, smart home, kitchen, grocery, toys, furniture, fashion, appliances and more. Not a member yet? Anyone eligible can join Prime or start a 30-day free trial at amazon.co.uk/primeday to participate in Prime Day.

"Prime members will enjoy a day and a half of epic deals, with 36 hours to shop more than one million deals across the globe," said Jeff Wilke, Amazon CEO Worldwide Consumer. "New for this year, members can shop exclusive Prime Day Launches and enjoy surprise entertainment events unboxed from giant Smile boxes in major cities. More than 100 million paid Prime members around the world will find our best Prime Day celebration yet."

New for 2018 - Unboxing More Than Deals

Ahead of Prime Day itself, larger-than-life Amazon Smile boxes will make their way across land and sea for delivery to major cities around the world including New York, L.A., Tokyo, Milan and London, promising to 'unbox' exclusive entertainment experiences for Prime members and the general public.

In London, Amazon will host an entertainment extravaganza on Sunday 15th July – the eve of Prime Day. The U.K. 'Unbox Prime Day' event will bring together a series of unique experiences for all-ages to showcase the entertainment benefits of Amazon's Prime membership, including Prime Reading, Prime Video and Prime Music.

The event will include a special family screening of Paddington 2, available to stream as part of Amazon's Prime membership subscription from the 12th July; an intimate reading and Q&A with Ant Middleton on his Sunday Times best-selling book 'First Man In: Leading from the Front'; and will culminate in an exclusive gig headlined by British music icons, Take That.

Tickets to the 'Unbox Prime Day' event will be available for free to both Prime and non-Prime members, with attendees registering at unboxprimeday.co.uk for a chance to secure a limited number of tickets on a first come, first served basis.

Prime Day Launches

Also new for this year, well-known and emerging brands will launch exclusive new items and offers for a limited time on Amazon.co.uk in the lead up to and during Prime Day, before they launch anywhere else in the U.K.. Prime members will be the first to shop with early access Prime Day Launches that will top everyone's wish list. Prime Day Launches in the U.K. include: the latest smart home technology, home entertainment, jewellery and big brand beauty products.

For the first time, Prime members will also be able to celebrate Prime Day at their local Whole Foods Market. Prime members will enjoy savings on a selection of the high-quality natural and organic products they love across all London stores on Prime Day.

Deals Start Now

Every day leading up to Prime Day, members will discover all kinds of exclusive offers. The following start today:
