

Hear it, hum it, gotta have it. Amazon.co.uk introduces CD Singles

August 24, 2000

24 August 2000 How much do you want that track after hearing it on the radio weeks before you can buy it? Well, Amazon.co.uk's music store is now selling CD singles, and pre-order means that you can order online and get the latest hits delivered straight to your door on the very day of release.

In addition to the hottest releases, you'll find a comprehensive selection of current, recent and classic CD singles, with the top five available for just 1.99. Plus, you can now browse the UK's largest music selection for practically every minidisc available in the UK.

And because of Amazon.co.uk's commitment to customer choice, the music store now includes not only digital recordings, but also classic analogue vinyl albums for the turntable connoisseur. The selection of LPs include specialist re-issues from the likes of Abba, Eric Clapton, Bob Dylan, Guns 'n' Roses, Morrissey and The Who - all unbeatable value at 16.99.

Paul Zimmerman, general manager of Amazon.co.uk's music store said: "The addition of CD singles, minidiscs and vinyl albums means the UK's biggest music selection just got even bigger - we now cater for everyone from fanatical Westlife fans to Elvis vinyl junkies. Amazon.co.uk's commitment to customers is reflected in our wide and varied selection, fast delivery and great prices."
