

Season Three of Emmy-Nominated Amazon Original Kids Series Annedroids Will Launch on the 24th June on Amazon Prime Video

June 8, 2016

*From Creator J.J. Johnson (Dino Dan), the new season of the Annedroids, which recently received ten Daytime Emmy nominations, continues the journey of Anne, her friends and three android creations, as they inspire children about science, technology and engineering*

London — 7th June 2016— Amazon today announced that the third season of its Emmy-nominated original kids series Annedroids, is scheduled to launch on the 24th June on Prime Video in the UK. Created by producer and director J.J. Johnson (Dino Dan) and Sinking Ship Entertainment (Odd Squad), Annedroids is a live-action adventure series that follows Anne, a young female scientist, her human friends and the android assistants she's created, through the amazing scientific discoveries they make while undertaking the biggest experiment of them all; growing up. The series spotlights, through trial and error, how science, technology, engineering, and maths can inspire children to do great things.

The third season of Annedroids sees the return of Anne (Addison Holley, Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood) and her friends Nick (Jadriel Dowlin) and Shania (Adrianna Di Liello, Stage Fright) as the trio embark on more adventures and experiments with their android friend, Pal (voiced by Millie Davis, Orphan Black) who's more determined than ever to become a real kid.

This season finds Nick banned from the junkyard by his mum, Anne upgrading junkyard security, and Shania trying her best to help things return to normal. New friends and familiar faces join them this season, including Zack (Jonny Gray, Max and Shred), who helps Anne build a new dogdroid named Fangs, and Charlie (Devyn Nekoda, Backstage) who mistakes Pal for a real kid and takes Pal to the shops.

"We're excited to debut a third season of Annedroids and are thrilled about the series' recent recognition with the Television Academy," said Tara Sorensen, Head of Kids Programming at Amazon Studios. "Our customers have embraced Anne and her tenacity to innovate through trial and error, a powerful message to kids."

"Annedroids continues to defy stereotypes and expectations," said J.J. Johnson, series Creator and Executive Producer. "We're humbled by the critical acclaim the show has received and excited to present our fans with an epic third season of more action, more drama and more robotic mayhem."

Annedroids recently received ten Daytime Emmy nominations, including Outstanding Children's Series, Outstanding Performer in a Children's or Pre-School Children's Series and Outstanding Directing in a Children's or Pre-School Children's Series. The series also garnered the Grand Prize for Best Production, All Categories at the Youth Media Alliance Awards of Excellence. Additionally, the series received the IPST Education Award at The Goethe Institut Science Film Festival 2014, a Parents' Choice Foundation's Silver Honor, and three Young Artist Awards. Common Sense Media also named Anne's character a top 10 best role model in children's TV.

Prime members can soon stream the third season of Annedroids at no additional cost to their Prime membership with the Amazon Video app for TVs, connected devices and mobile devices, or online at amazon.co.uk/primevideo. Prime members can also download the series for offline viewing on iOS, Android and Fire devices at no additional cost.

Annedroids is also available in Fire for Kids Unlimited, an all-you-can-eat content subscription service built from the ground up just for kids. Fire for Kids Unlimited provides unlimited access to thousands of age-appropriate videos, educational apps, games and books, without advertising or in-app purchases. One year of Fire for Kids Unlimited is also included with Amazon's Fire Kids Edition and Fire HD Kids Edition tablets.

Ends.
