Tech-thriller StartUp joins Amazon Prime Video's line-up of award-winning and critically acclaimed TV shows and movies when the full series launches on Tuesday 8th November

Along with access to thousands of popular movies and TV episodes through Prime Video, Prime members across the UK benefit from unlimited One-Day delivery on millions of products, access to over one million songs on Prime Music, 30-minute early access to Lightning Deals, one free pre-released book a month with Kindle First and unlimited photo storage with Prime Photos — all available for a monthly membership of £7.99/month or £79/year

London – 7th November 2016 – Amazon Prime Video is today confirmed as the home of StartUp in the UK, Austria, Germany and Japan. Amazon Prime members will be able to enjoy the Miami-set thriller starring British actor Martin Freeman (Sherlock, The Office) and Adam Brody (The O.C.) on 8th November.

StartUp explores what happens when a brilliant yet controversial tech idea gets incubated on the wrong side of the tracks. When three strangers, including financier Nick Talman (Brody), are forced to fund a company with dirty money and form ties with a Haitian gang, their fight to build a business pales in comparison to the fight to stay alive. Specialising in financial crimes, vehement FBI agent Phil Rask (Freeman) wields the power to make or break those he comes in contact with — and that power is not always used for the right reasons.

StartUp launches on Prime Video in the month after the fifth and final series of Ripper Street and Woody Allen's TV debut, A Crisis in Six Scenes; and before the launch of the highly-anticipated new Clarkson, Hammond and May show, The Grand Tour.

Amazon customers who are not already Prime members can start a 30-day free trial of Amazon Prime by visiting www.amazon.co.uk/prime.

The deal was signed with Sony Pictures Television for Amazon Prime Video in the UK, Austria, Germany and Japan.

Ends.
